

Conroe High School Learning Options and Expectations

Remote Learning

- Remote learners will follow the Tiger, Gold and White Day Schedule
- Students are marked present during remote learning when they engage with course content by 11:59pm each day for each scheduled class period.
- Remote learners may attend a face-to-face course if needed and approved by their assistant principal and/or teacher. Remote learners must provide their own transportation to and from school. They may not ride the bus to or from school.
- The Remote learner MUST sign into the attendance office when coming to school for an in-person class. Failure to do so may result in loss of privilege for in-person learning sessions.
- Assessments for remote learners may look different or have different structures than assessments for in person learners so long as each assessment is written at the same level of difficulty and covers the same content or skill.
- Instruction will be provided in an asynchronous platform that may include:
 - Recorded lessons covering the material being taught
 - Videos of the content being taught
 - Opportunities for real-time learning either through synchronous instruction or tutorial times
 - Assessments given through Canvas and monitored through Proctorio or other monitoring software.

In-Person Learning

- Students will engage with the courses on their schedule in an in-person setting.
- Students must attend their courses in person on a daily basis. It is imperative that our in person students are present in the building each day for every period unless they are sick.
- If a student will be absent they must contact the Attendance office for the absence.
- Students that leave during the day must sign-out at the attendance office in order to avoid truancy. Students must have parent permission to sign out during the day.
- If an in person learner is absent for the day – they may be allowed to complete their work at home through remote instruction – however, in-person learners are prohibited from completing major grades or assessments remotely, unless the assignment is intended to be completed at home for all in-person learners.
- If a student is not able to complete the work they miss while at home, they will be given time to make up their assignments once they return to school.
- Parents and students should utilize the attendance office to sign in or out of school. Students should not enter the building after 7:16 without signing in through the front office. The exception for this rule would be a student who has late arrival or rides the bus.

In-Person and Remote Learning Similarities
